Foreword

We, the graduating class of 1945, have a two-fold purpose in publishing this, our annual yearbook. We hope to acquaint others with the departments and traditions of Lancaster High School, and we ourselves desire to preserve through these pages a permanent record of the good times, comradeship, and spirited events of the past four years.

Dedication

We, the Seniors of '45, dedicate this yearbook to our teachers of physical education, Miss Florence Gillette and Mr. John Java. The dedication is made in appreciation, not only of their untiring efforts in the supervision of our athletic activities, but also for their wise counsel in good sportsmanship and physical fitness.

All Hail !

All hail to old Lancaster!
Vict'ry crowned on many a field,
And the foes of Lancaster tremble
When before the Crimson yield.
On your feet, now all together,
Give a cheer for Lancaster, Rah! Rah! Rah!
Raise your voices on high,
Let your cheers rend the sky,
For Lancaster wins today.

Memoirs

As the last of our four happy years at L. H. S. draws to a close, we, the class of '45, wish to inscribe in retrospect the salient events which are indelibly engraved in our memories.

Our first undertaking as Freshman tyros in 1941-42 was an attempt at organization. At our first class meeting Dale Baird was elected president; Virginia Rohl, vice president; Anne Stutzman, secretary; and Carol Suess, treasurer. Our only memorable accomplishments that year were the selling of Christmas cards and the holding of one dance. The most outstanding event of the year, however, was our graduation from Junior High School. A pageant, "Graduation Gifts," presented by the class concluded a joyous Freshman year.

In September 1942 we became members of the Senior High School, and looking ahead toward the future when we should be Seniors, we began our Sophomore year bent on filling our coffers to finance the impending yearbook. Miss Marion Warner was assigned as adviser to guide us through the next three years. At the first meeting Dale Baird and Virginia Rohl were returned to their former offices, while Ina Mae VanBuskirk and Marjorie Meline were elected secretary and treasurer, respectively. At our next meeting we completed our organization and chose the red rose as our flower, and blue and gold as our class colors. We did augment appreciably our treasury by conducting a successful drive to sell magazine subscriptions. We concluded the year on a happy note with a Sophomore Hop, the theme of which was the then-popular "little man who wasn't there," the "gremlin." The fact that the orchestra, depleted by the military demands of Uncle Sam, appeared with only three members enabled us to fare better financially than we had expected. Our Sophomore year proved to us that we were capable of acting collectively to obtain results.

In September of '43 we again invaded the class rooms. Following the traditional policy of former years, soon after our return we elected the class officers. Oscar Roaldi was chosen our president, Virginia Rohl and Marjorie Meline were re-elected vice-president and treasurer, respectively, while Anne Stutzman became secretary. The social functions of the year were a Hal-. loween Dance, at which the fortune teller's booth proved very popular, and the much-publicized Junior Prom. The gymnasium for the Prom was decorated in accordance with the theme, Holland Paradise. The ceremony of investing the king, Dale Baird, and the queen, Virginia Rohl, with the royal crowns, took place before the Grand March.

As we treked gaily back to school the following fall for what most of us hoped would be our last year, we noticed that our class had dwindled from one hundred and twenty-one who answered the roll back in 1941 to a present total of eighty four. The Second World War did not overlook our class, for at this time fifteen of our original classmates are in the various branches of the service, while five members of our Senior class have recently left, or are about to leave for the service. We are justly proud of the fact that we are the first group to complete four years of high school during World War II.

Now that we have advanced into the realm of seniority, we find ourselves busier than ever. We elected Crawford Smith, president; Virginia Rohl, vice-president for her fourth consecutive term; Gerald Kihl, secretary; and Raymond Ignatz, treasurer.

To finance and publish a worthwhile "Cayugan" became one of our goals. We well remember how gigantic the task seemed when we learned the anticipated cost of the project. We were determined, however, to go "Onward to Success." We are proud that the class sold a record number of yearbooks.

Much unsuspected talent was revealed in our Senior play, a three-act comedy, "The Family Upstairs," produced under Mr. Bigelow's skillful direction. The bounteous profit realized from the play plus the proceeds from a stationery sale undertaken by fifteen of the girls increased our treasury balance considerably. We also sponsored a Sadie Hawkins Dance and a Christmas Dance. Now we are planning the Senior Ball, and we feel assured it will climax the social events of all our school years.

Thus concludes the history of one of the most important epochs of our lives. We express our deepest gratitude to the members of the faculty for their generous cooperation, kind consideration, and wise counseling. For many of us this is the last year of formal education. Others, however, will seek higher education in schools and colleges; while all alike, we believe, will face their new life with courage and confidence. Most of us will, of course, stumble, and some may even fall on the stony road to success, but all will benefit from their early training and inspiration received at Lancaster High.

Junior Prom

(Poem read as introduction to coronation ceremony)

Way back in the year of '43
When Juniors got together, you see;
We babbled and thought and dreamed and planned
Of a Junior Prom that had to be grand.

We discussed at length both early and late
Till at very long last we decided the date,
But then came another perplexing question:
What kind of Prom? Who had a suggestion?

Ideas came fast, from left and from right
Till up rose our queen, with a scheme we thought bright.
"She said, "Let's have a Holland Paradise with windmills and flowers."
"Colossal," we cried, and began to work for months, then weeks, then hours.

Our task was great; we had to think twice
About converting this gym into Paradise.
But with much toil and determination
You're now surrounded by our creation

Our major point up till now we've neglected:
Our King and our Queen had to be selected
We mentioned boys and girls galore,
Then narrowed our royalty down to four.

The day is here; we've chosen our theme,
Our orchestra; our King, and our Queen--
We've completed all our preparation;
Now, please join us in the coronation.

Band

With sixty pieces, the band this year is larger and contains a better instrumentation than those of the last several years, largely because of the inclusion for the first time of students from the Junior High. Despite its large numbers, however, it was handicapped by having relatively few experienced players. Nevertheless, under the direction of Mr. Schermerhorn and Mr. Kemp, the band put in a very successful season. It was able to present the annual March Concert which was cancelled the preceding year.

Football

This year's football team experienced one of the best seasons it has known in the past two or three years.

Although hampered by losing its initial tilt by a close score to Lancaster's traditional rival, Depew, it showed the excellent spirit to come back and beat Pine Hill, Akron, Sloan, and Medina, losing only to East Aurora, Depew, and Amherst. It also had the distinction of being the first team to beat Pine Hill since 1942. Much of the success of the team was due to its exceptional blocking and co-ordinated teamwork.

Basketball

Coach Fred J. Karl coached a team consisting of the remnants of the '43-'44 Varsity and Junior Varsity squads for the new season. The returning Varsity members were C. Smith, G. Frost and J. Latello.

The team achieved one of its brightest goals by winning at Depew, 44 to 41. The squad won five games out of the 18 played. In the league standings L. H. S. was tied for last place. Capt. Louis Kicak was high scorer with 145 points.

Baseball

The L. H. S. baseball squad of '44 won four games and lost seven to gain them sixth place in the league standings.

Coach Jamieson did a creditable job with returning regulars and the additional material available.

Those who will be missing in the '45 lineup are Don Simme (who led the team in batting with a .323 average), R. Ackman, V. Price, C. Creed, and H. Mason.

Track

The track team of 1944, although possessing many fine athletes, lacked the strength in the field events to defeat Amherst, East Aurora, or Pine Hill. L. H. S. did nose out Hamburg in the conference meet at Amherst in the late spring. Lancaster placed exceptionally well in the 100-yard dash, 440 yard dash, mile, and relay events. Howard Mason placed well in the 100-yard dash, and Floyd Price was undefeated in the 440, winning the sectional championship in the event at Kenmore.

Cheer Leaders

The nine girls, who cheered L. H. S. to many victories were assisted in the fall by one boy.

They introduced many new cheers and yells.

Five Sophomore cheerleaders, who cheered for the Jay-Vees this year, will advance to the Varsity squad upon graduation of the Seniors.

Student Council

JR. HIGH SCHOOL

In September our new Student Council was organized to give the students an opportunity to solve many of the problems that arise in administering the Junior High. Each home room elected one member to represent the group at the weekly meeting during the home room period. Under the direction of Miss Snyder, the Council elected officers, and wrote a constitution. The representatives have assumed many responsibilities such as the purchase of class rings and the ninth grade graduation.

President: Jane Barber, Vice President; Jean Bork, Secretary: Tillie Eisgruber, Treasurer: Edward Schilling.

Even schools do strange things. This year I have decided at the close of each month to record in a diary the things of interest that have happened to me...The first item is unusual. The polio germs delayed my starting until September 18, so with dispatch the students arranged their schedules, and classes were organized.

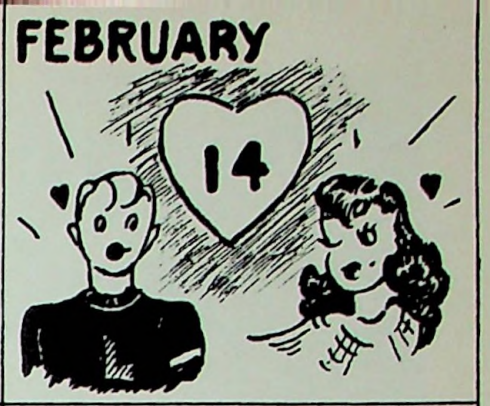
The big game against my traditional rival, Depew, was held on the sixth. The sting of defeat was somewhat ameliorated by overcoming Medina...The Juniors held a Hallowe'en dance on the 27th, the first dance of the season...The seniors are rehearsing a play. I heard one senior remark he hoped it would be a financial success--something about a yearbook. I must listen more carefully.

On the 17th and 18th the play was held. It was "The Family Upstairs." Must have been a success from the crowds present...On the 12th, 13th, and 14th, my halls ceased echoing with student yells--temporarily. Pupils were busy with tests...The seniors had a Sadie Hawkins dance, Nov. 10, after the Akron football game. My gymnasium wasn't decorated...The football team has done very well and I'm proud.

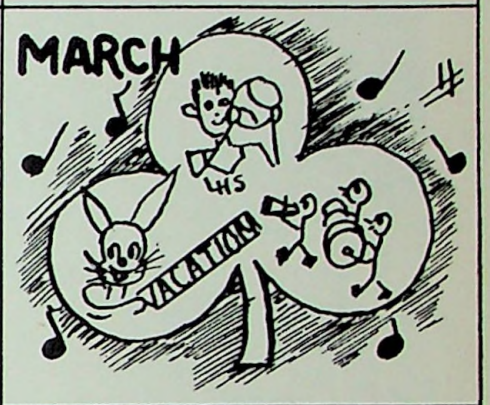
For the first time in my history I was declared closed because of bad weather on the 12th and 13th...Early this month I felt the holiday spirit. Some of my rooms were decorated with Christmas colors; I especially liked the lighted tree on the stage. The students were dismissed for the holidays on the 20th after holding a music program in the assembly. That evening the seniors sponsored a Christmas dance.

I started the New Year by being closed again due to additional bad weather...Once more my halls were quiet. My students were "involved" in Regents exams during the week of the 22nd...The newest members of my Senior High, the sophomores, held a dance January 5, and I shall be looking forward to many more dances by the class in future years...The month was highlighted by Lancaster's victory over Depew's quintet.

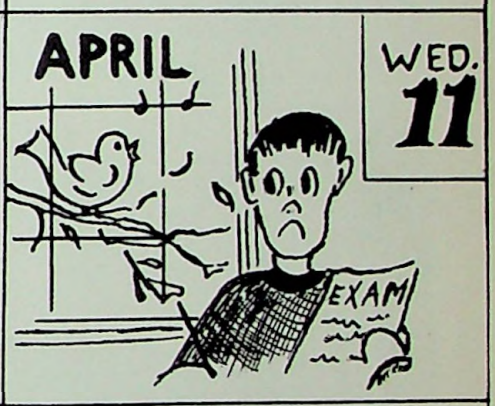
I started the month by being closed again. The weather seems to have broken all records; moreover, my furnaces are being threatened by a coal shortage...The basketball team played eight games this month...The members of the senior class are "sporting" their new class rings.



This month ended the basketball season, and although the team wasn't entirely victorious, I am proud of my students for their fine showing of school spirit...The band held its first concert of the year, Mar. 16. The band has increased in number considerably and Mr. "S" has "threatened" to ask for new uniforms...Easter vacation started on the 28th. A newly painted flagpole was the only Easter ensemble of which I could boast.



My students were greeted on their return from Easter vacation by third quarter tests... The Junior Prom was held on the 20th. Dolores Leutloff was crowned Queen, and Harold Simme, King...Baseball season opened April 23, with a game against Sloan. The team terms their loss "lack of practice."...The Junior High Dance on April 27 brought forth a surge of previous "don't dance" students.



The annual Music Festival was held May 4. My music department made a spectacular showing. ..The Block "L"-English "L" dance was held May 11 and displayed a new trend in gym decoration.. My students' plans for a Youth Center are gradually taking shape. A Mothers' Day dance to raise money for the center was held May 27...Due to last minute complications, the Senior Ball was changed to June 1. I am looking forward to it. The theme is "Tropicana."

The Senior Ball took place as scheduled. The guests seemed to have enjoyed their souvenirs...At last the yearbooks arrived. Everyone was asking everyone else to sign his book... Regents began on the 18th. The Seniors had an especially exhausted and worried look. The graduation exercises were held on the 26th. I shall miss the seniors next year. I'll remember every one of them. "Unusual," you say. Not at all--for even a school does strange things.
